Foreword

Welcome to this month's Pointless Classic title. This time we are talking gibberish! Yes quite literally, it's total nonsense, the often overlooked subject of Glossolalia, otherwise known as "Speaking in tongues" (or talking a load of crap, depending how you see it!)

It's always been a great amusement to me whenever I see a mention of it, or a video clip of these religious nutters, when hysterical enough can go into trance state and begin "Communing with Angels". One thing is sure, if they indeed are talking in the angelic tongue, then Angels speak a lot of gibberish! Still, these total head cases are and always will be a source of great amusement for me, and I suppose it's far more politically correct for me to make fun of these idiots than many others I can't help chortle about!

This special edition is pretty pointless, that is just looking at it from one perspective. Yes, it generates strings of complete babble and gibberish, which has no real value, but look further into how you could use it, and you may find it useful as an alien language generator, a code generator, or as an in game translation tool! Or just use it as the gibberish generator it was intended for! I'm sure both GM and players alike could find hours of fun with this, and will no doubt will come up with many weird and humorous results.

Roll 2D6 to find out how many times to roll the D100 table. Each time a 6 is rolled, then Roll another D6 to determine an extra vowel in between the nonsense word (D6: 1.= A, 2.= E, 3.= I, 4.= O, 5.= U, 6.= Y)

Have fun coming up with loads of silly babble and don't forget to check out our other Pointless Classics range of PDFs (available where you got this one) or indeed our growing range of Digital hobby products.

If you have an idea for a pointless classic that you think would amuse and be at home in the range, get in touch via our website WWW.THEGRINNINGSKULL.COM and lets make it happen! We are always happy to hear from you about your ideas and comments!
