Gifts with Unique Style

Gifts – the word conjures images of brightly wrapped packages and eager anticipation on a recipient’s face. In games, gifts are often presented to adventurers for their heroic deeds or presented by adventurers to nobles or as offerings to deities to gain favor. A poorly presented gift can reflect as badly on a group as a poorly chosen one. Unfortunately, a present’s appearance is often glanced over. Never fear – your friends here at Healing Fireball are here to help with our latest product Two Bit Tables: Gifts with Unique Style. Every gift you deliver will be a memorable one.

Using the Tables

To create a present first choose whether it will be delivered in a box or a bag, then roll a D20 once for the box/bag, once for the wrapping/filling for the gift, and once for any embellishments the gift has. Tables for modern gifts and fantasy gifts have been provided for the box and bag options. Alternative tables have been provided below to add science fiction options, fantastic options or steampunk options. To use these tables just substitute rolls on them for rolls on the usual tables above.
